About Rehab Connection

Rehab Connection is owned and operated by Amy Knecht, MHS PT, and Michele Warren, MHS PT, licensed physical therapists whose goal is to ensure a friendly, comfortable and inviting environment at all of their convenient locations. They, along with over 25 highly qualified Physical and Occupational Therapists, have been helping patients reclaim their lives with a combination of compassion and personalized therapy programs in Southern New Jersey since 1987. Through their combined work experience and extensive knowledge of orthopedic, pediatric and neurological disorders, they continue to help patients return to doing the activities they love best!

Rehab Connection takes pride in continuously supporting a wide variety of our community's schools, charities, religious organizations, and athletic programs.

It Doesn't Get More Convenient Than This

At Rehab Connection, we know your time is a valuable commodity, so why should you have to work so hard before your therapy appointment? Leave all the logistical fretting and fussing in our capable hands. As part of our available services, we:
